Third edition. Duchamp functioned not only as a symbol of the historical avant-garde – the founder, in French eyes, of modern art alongside Picasso – but as a symbol of new trends in the French and American neo-avantgarde. A very handsomely-bound Victorian example of 'belles-lettres' aesthete fiction; from an intriguingly rare early-modern French Protestant perspective. Couldnotgenerateembed. Un moment: reprenez haleine. Published in areas of French new novel, comparative literature and literature of the fantastic.
