Jesus Calling. It is not a loose translation or a paraphrase. We would never say this to our people, but we all know that the King James Version is a poor translation based on poor texts. JamesPrice. The aim of its translators was to update the vocabulary and grammar of the King James Version while preserving the classic style and literary beauty of the original KJV. Try fewer keywords. The translators have also sought to follow translation principles of translation used in the original King James Version which the NKJV revisers call "complete equivalence" in contrast to "dynamic equivalence" used by many other modern translations.

In harmony with the purpose of the King James scholars, the translators added different or generic keywords. Thus, a clearly defined presentation of the variants is provided for the benefit of interested readers representing all textual persuasions.
