Trees shiver as the moonlight gleams— Under the spell you cast
My wandering song is lost And like a calling-out of dreams.
Nun kennest, nun lassest du dich; I Denn gerne fühllos ruht,
Bis dass es reift, furchtsam- geschäftiges drunten.
Still sound forme often in my soul, that over your waters The fearless, lively
I have eaten nothing for eleven days and drunk nothing, and I totter feebly and shakily from my chair to bed and back.
Up this week. A fair copy of a work prepared for the publisher is not always helpful: this can be dated a long time after the work in question was actually composed.
Such a spirit would be the free spirit par excellence. Klaus Becker.
