So here's the subtle humiliation. It is Leandro's eccentric behavior, especially his dark humour in response to each successive murder, which makes him the perfect Shadow Trickster. Review : "This book surprises us and gratifies us with its scope, its detail and how, like the trickster himself, it challenges our beliefs about the function of popular culture.

The drama happens in a town with an insidiously pessimistic ambience that adds to the complexity of the story. Social reality is constructed through intricate mechanisms that involve psychological, social, and symbolic levels of cooperation between individuals. The comic vision loves to pull the rug out from under wishful thinking, egocentrism, affected dignity, silly pedantry, absurd pride, willfulness, and other human follies. Book Description Routledge. A slightly different characterization is offered by Gerald Vizenor. Helena Bassil-Morozow has been teaching Film, Drama and Literature in various further education institutions and in private practice for over seven years.
