He was absolutely adorable and though he came across quite grown up for his years, he was still written convincingly given his situation. I also like to read those kinds of books. TheStage. The other thing that was a huge plus for me in The Last Rising was the heat factor. Ultimately, an antidote to the poison was found and he was cured. Some satisfy, but most are missing one or more important elements that keep them from feeling like fully fleshed-out and three dimensional reads. It's a quick read, just over pages. She finally decides that it just isn't worth Wehm.
