Jess gets into a dance-off with a stranger to our right, and everyone in our group—now ten strong—cheers. It is packed. I fled that afternoon toward Naini Tal in the Himalayan foothills.

Most people I know played in some sort of tee-ball or soccer league when they were young. Both Bradshaw and Slonsky are white. And on Wolf and Darwin Islands in the Galapagos, the sharp-beaked ground finch uses its sharp beak to peck the wings and tails of the large and notoriously dim seabirds called boobies, and drinks the blood that flows from the wounds. What is puzzling, however, about the post-war period is that, despite the fact that the Nazi threat was over, and that a Labour government was initially far more sympathetic to the Soviet cause, B Division did not immediately take back control of communist subversion.
