What begins as a self-defence class grows into a bonding experience that helps Hadley learn to live again and empowers young women, teaches them to work together and look out for each other instead of competing against one. This book was painful to read at times, the picture it painted of sexual assault is terrifying but worse than that is the victim shaming that is all too prevalent. Determined to give the guys the justice they deserve, Hadley dons a VIGILANTE CAT - A Novel mask and goes after them, one by one, using her martial arts training.
