This mixture of elements explains the difficulty that scholars have found in disentangling the sources of Kabbalah. This "tunic" is of great significance in the ma'aseh bereshit of the Heikhalot Rabbati and echoes of this idea can be found in the rabbinic aggadot concerning the garment of light in which the Holy One, blessed be He, wrapped himself at the moment of creation. Similarly, the Gnostic teaching of Markos second century on "the body of the truth" is a spiritualized Gnostic version of the Shi'ur Komah.

This does not mean that I ignore what modern teachers and authors in this field Subjects Cabala -- History. Ben Sira warns against it, saying: "You shall have no business with secret things".
