A Heritage of Holy Wood is the first reconstruction of the iconographic and literary tradition of the Legend of the True Cross. His profile head is aglow with masculine beauty. Three Workmen Bury the Wood.

It is in fact one of the most unforgettable views of Arezzo, enclosed by its wall. As the iconography loses its original archaic character in this operation, it also loses its link with the original literary tradition wherein the supremacy over Jews was very prominent. Piero was in Rome on 16 October when they were installing the scaffolding for the frescoes he was to paint in the Vatican; there is no doubt that he had been there for some time. Burial of the Wood.
