Heseemstounderestimatethetenacityofitsproponents,andthepusillanim Social democrats and liberals almost everywhere became Globalists, but of a kinder, gentler sort. And they managed to stabilize the situation. LoadingcommentsCBCNews.He likens The Collapse of Globalism present era - or interregnum - to that of the 70s when the old Keynesian system was in growing disarray but the neo-liberal era that was to replace it was neither strong enough nor coherent enough to supplant it. He is excellent at conjuring the uncertain atmosphere of the s, in which a resurgent market ideology was to triumph over tired state socialism.
